

FUNERAL PREPLANNING GUIDE

"Precious in the sight of the LORD is the death of his saints."

- Psalm 116:15

THE GOAL OF A FUNERAL SERVICE:

A Christian funeral service actually has three distinct goals: remembrance and honor for the deceased, comfort for the family and friends, and proclamation of the gospel of Christ. All three of these goals aid us in processing our grief. Because every human bears the image of God (Genesis 1:27) every human life is worth remembering. A good funeral service will highlight the life and accomplishments of the deceased. A good funeral service will also give the family and friends of the deceased a dedicated time to begin the grieving process and find closure for the end of their loved one's physical life in this age. Finally, because Christ was raised from the grave, a good funeral service calls us to hope in the return of Christ, at which point, those who are asleep in Christ will be raised to immortality. This hope should also include an explanation of the gospel and a call for unbelievers to repent of their sin and place their faith in Christ. When these three goals are met God is honored and families are encouraged.

This booklet will aid you as you make funeral plans either for yourself or a loved-one.

FOR THE PERSON MAKING THE ADVANCED PLANS

When you have completed the funeral planning handbook, please inform family members (or close friends) of the handbook and where it can be found. It will be used in consultation with your family or whomever you have directed to carry out these wishes upon your death.

Also, after completing the handbook, you may wish to discuss with your family members (or close friends) what you have written to be certain that it is clear. Consider providing an additional copy:

1. To your family.
2. To your pastor.
3. To your funeral director.

You may wish to write a note to someone you trust that says: I have recorded my desires regarding my death and burial. I keep this information in the following place:

_____. At the time of my death, I ask that you use this information to provide guidance for my family and my church in making arrangements for the funeral I desire. Although this information is being left for safekeeping, I understand that it is not legally binding or enforceable. This handbook that expresses my desires does not make the church or anyone obligated or responsible for the execution of these instructions.
